AYLESBURY MILK.

LION BRAND:

THE AYLESBURY CONDENSED MILK is so widely known and generally used that it will be nece sary to say but little on this head.

It consists only of pure fresh milk condensed (in vacuo), to which is added a certain proportion of the best refined sugar to pres-rve it, and it is then enclosed in hermetically-sealed tins. It keeps sweet and sound for an indefinite time in any climate, while sealed, and for weeks after being opened, if freely exposed to the air.

BY ADDING FIVE OR SIX QUARTS OF WATER TO IT, IT IS RECONVERTED INTO SWEETENED FRESH MILK.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

1. A pound tin of our Condensed Mi k is equivalent to five pints of rich country milk, besides containing one-third of a pound of the best refined sugar.
2. It is therefore fully as cheap as the milkman's article, besides being infinitely purer, richer, and more convenient.
3. It is alwa s at hand, does not turn sour, can be mixed as wanted: and there is no waste.
4. It is available for all domestic purposes, and is also known, as it is uniform in quality, and does not change from hour to hour, like ordinary milk.

THE BEST INFANTS' FOOD

As a test of its perfect purity, stir two tablespoonfuls into a glass of water, pour into a saucer, let it stand over-night, and the cream will rise.

From The Lancet, Jan, 28th, 1871.

CONDENSED MILK, PREPARED BY THE ENGLISH CONDENSED MILK COMPANY, AYLESBURY, LION BRAND.—Condensed Milk is now prepared on such a large scale, and by so many different manufacturers, that there can be no doubt of its utility or of the large demand which exists for the article.

We think this Condensed Milk will come into very great use, as, for infant's food, nothing can possibly be better. In the house, for general purposes, it will also be found good and economical, as it will always ensure a supply of sweet and wholesome milk being obtainable, for after the tin has been opened and the contents exposed to the air, it will keep sweet for many weeks. For custards, puddings, &c., it is capitally adapted, and as a nice flavouring to tea, coffee, or cocoa, it will be much sought after, as it will be always ready to hand.

The Manager of the Company is Mr. L P Merriam, who first introduced the Condensed Swiss Milk to the British public. The establishment at Aylesbury is un der the superintendence of Mr. C A Lippincott, who has had large experience in condensing.

Extract from "The Morning Post", March 14th, 1872.

"WHOLESALE BABY-FARMING.—Dr. Hardwicke, the deputy-coroner for Central Middlesex, held an inquest on Wednesda afternoon, at the Bank of Engla d Tavern, Paddington, upon the bodies (skeletons) of Edwin Jones, aged 8 months, and Winifred Eliza Moore, aged 20 months. One was a child of a single woman who paid Mrs. Johnson 6s. per week for taking care of it. The parentage of the other child did not appear to be clear; but it was received from Queen Charlotte's Hospital, and 6s. per week was paid for it. Both were exceedingly emaciated, and both died from weakness. The coroner remarked that the cases were a disgrace to the count y. In the first place, the room in which they were kept was filthy, the air foul, and the whole place choked up. In the absence of mothers' milk, if Aylesbury Condensed Milk had been administered they would have thriven. He believed that, if properly treated, these children would have lived."

Extract from The St. Pancras and Holborn Journal, March 2nd, 1872.

DR. LANKEST R ON HAND-FED CHILDREN.—Dr. Lankester held an inquest at the Orange Tree tavern, Euston-road, on the body of Gertrude Mountain Wallis, aged three and a-half months, daughter of a 1st Life Guardsman. The 'post-mortem' showed the cause of the death was exhaustion from diarrhœa, no doubt accelerated by improper food, because the stomach contained a large quantity of curds-and-whey. The Coroner said that the mortality among the children, when compared with those fed on breast milk, was astounding; it arose from improper food and sour milk, which brought on diarrhœa. Several jurors mentioned cases of hand-fed children who had been brought up on Condensed Milk and had thriven well. Coroner: Yes, I know that the Aylesbury Condensed Milk is very good for hand-fed children; in fact, it is about the best, for it keeps sweet for weeks, so that there is no fear of Diarrhœa; it is also so much cheaper than the ordinary milk. The jury returned a verdict of death from diarrhœa, accelerated by want of breast milk and proper food

The Aylesbury Condensed Milk has also been approved by other Coroners, and eminent Medical authorities.

WHY DOES THE APPETITE FAIL?—because the organs of which the appetite is the dut reyor do not duly perform th ir functions. When the food, instead of nourishing the body, becomes a source of pain and discomfort, the desire for it diminish s. A "cathar ic invigorant," in other w rds, a medicine that will remo e the crude results of indigestion fro a the bowels, and at the same time t ne and regulate the liver, and truly prevent f ture obstructions of a like nature, is the only appetiser required. Now, this is exactly the operation of Bristol's Vegetable Sugar-coated Pills. The Standard.

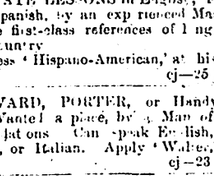
Nil falsi audeam nil veri non audeam dicere.' CICERO.

FRIDAY JULY 4, 1873.



THE FOURTH OF JULY.

This is the 97th anniversary of American Independence, and free men in every clime salute the day. The Stars and Stripes have won an allegiance from mankind, higher than any oath can enforce, and an esteem which no calamity can lessen. Thrones, empires and peoples are at last willing to accept facts, and the oldest monarchies in Europe salute this day as one of the greatest in the history of our race.

Never has it been our agreeable duty to salute Americans at a period of greater national prosperity. The wise and generous statemanship of the Washington cabinet has overcome difficulties vast and terrible. The industry of the people has outstripped every previous development, whilst the blessings of peace, happiness and prosperity have with lavish hands been showered upon the nation by a beneficent Providence. So gratifying indeed is the picture that it requires an effort to comprehend how, within the narrow limits of a single century, so much has been accomplished.

The influx of labour from Europe has repaired the waste of the war; the desolate battle fields of the south are now covered with smiling crops; the great war of principles which was ended on the field, to be but resumed in the legislature, is over; even the traces of the material struggle have passed away, and those of the great moral struggle that ensued are to be found as indelibly marked at Geneva as at Washington. Never, perhaps, on any previous occasion was the balance of the constitution evener than at present; the supremacy of one portion of the Union over the other is dying out, the sacrifice of states to perpetuate the Union is over; municipal life was never stronger, or local political independence more vigorous. Throughout the immense territory of the Union there is an equalized political interest, a wide-spread participation in public works, and the wonderful excellence of American institutions is in nothing more conspicuous than in the easy resumption of civic administration in places where military rule was still called for.

Measured by any of the known rules of national greatness, the United States of America stand second to none. Science has achieved victories on its plains equal to the canalization of seas or the tunnelling of mountains. Commerce advances with an impulse that astonishes Europe. Industry flourishes with an intensity that surpasses the demands of consumption, feeding peoples and nation who know the Union only by the trade mark of a flour barrel or the pine of its exhaustless forests.

The birth-day of such a nation is no ordinary event, and challenges the respect of all who value the advancement of mankind. Could the signers of the Declaration of American Independence rise from their graves and see their great, happy and prosperous country to-day, what would be their astonishment Yet the heir loom which they left the country was a mere parchment roll. 'Tis the blood, and sinews, and brains, that have worked out to the letter the Magna Charta that calls for admiration. All honor to the people who from the little declaration sheet have framed a constitution that has withstood the greatest shocks, and survived every trial; the people who, obedient to that constitution, have refused no sacrifice to maintain its principles and carry them triumphant.

Forty millions of people to-day celebrate their nationality. We are with them; and may each succeeding year mark the same progress of this splendid nation.

The Magellan Mails.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

Lisbon 10th June.

MacMahon has taken up his residence at Versailles. In the session of the Assembly on the 7th inst. the Minister of Commerce expressed the difficulty he found in levying the extra duties on wool and other raw materials, and proposed some amendment without altogether abolishing the tax, as also the necessity of reforming the Commercial Treaties with England and Belgium, and the protection flag on French bottom. Prince Napoleon arrived at Paris. Duc de Broglie sent a circular to French Ministers abroad, to the effect that he will continue the policy of his predecessor, order at home, peace with other Powers; repressing all revolutionary tendencies and preserving existing institutions, until at a proper time the Assembly determine what form of Government is to be adopted for France.

Count Arnim presented his credentials on the 7th as German representative in France. King Victor Emmanuel sent a cordial note to Mac Mahon congratulating the hero of Magenta on his accession to power. Gen. Ladmirault is appointed Commander-in-chief of the army at Versailles, while keeping his post as Governor of Paris, Mr. Vicet vice-president of the Assembly has died. Gen. Chanzy, the friend of Thiers, is to be sent to Algiers as Governor-General, and a more Conservative man put in charge of his army.

The exigencies of the Bonapartists have induced MacMahon to remove numbers of civil officials and put men of imperial tastes to succeed them. A deputy in the Assembly interpellated the Government about the duty on salt, but the Minister made no reply. The Republican party has made a new fusion, with Casimir Perier for leader. When Ladmirault was appointed Commander-in-Chief some of the Ministers went to MacMahon and asked him to name Marshal Canrobert instead.

The German Government is taking measures to prevent the progress of Cholera, which has spread from Poland into two small towns of Western Prussia. The Emperor William is now convalescent. All the Prussian Bishops have protested against the new laws in religious matters. Prince Adalbert, Admiral of the German fleet, is dead. Prince Frederic William (of Hesse) committed suicide. Bismarck and other leading men are unwell and have retired from political affairs.

The Dutch war-steamer Penaue fired on 3 English merchantmen. The people of Atchanti are preparing for a desperate resistance to the Dutch, whose fleet was still blockading that port.

Baron Kludel arrived at Rome as German Ambassador. The veteran statesman Rattazzi is dead.

The British Ambassador, Mr. Layard, has retired from Madrid, so have Count de Bouille and the Russian Ambassador; this has caused an uneasy feeling, the only Minister left being Gen. Sickles, for the U. States, who is a factotum for the Republicans of Madrid. The Carlists cut to pieces a Republican army under Col. Loma, in Navarre. General Nouvilas is much blamed for not making head-way against Dorregaray, whose recent victory over the Government troops has raised the hopes of the Carlists, although their leader had to cross the frontier into France to get his arm amputated, leaving his forces in the command of Elio. At Leiqueitio the Carlist vessels continue to land arms and supplies. The Custom-house and treasury of Irun fell into their hands. They shot the Alcalde of Torre-Arca, burned a church at Tarragona, and shot 27 carbineers at Badalanza; the war is sanguinary as usual in civil contentions in Spain. The Government army under Nouvilas is 24,000 strong, but unable to check the Carlists. It is said the Government means to send Morriones to replace Nouvilas, but the former refuses the command unless with unlimited powers. Granada was the scene of a fierce battle on the 6th; after five hours fighting the garrison surrendered to the rebels.

Things are getting worse both with the army and at Madrid. General Velarde's forces mutinied, and he narrowly escaped with his life from the camp at Igualada. Brigadier Cabrieti was sent to restore order, but could do nothing. At the opening of the Cortes on the 7th they chose for President of the Chambers Jose Maria Orense, formerly known as Marquis of Albayda, by 177 votes.

Figueras renounced his post as President of the Republic, telling the Cortes that things were desperate. It had been proposed to make Pi Margal President, but the Cortes threw it out by 145 to 79 votes. Now, it was a second time proposed, and he was elected 'pro tem.' by 142 to 58. The proposal on the 8th to adopt a Federal Republic was voted by 210 voices against 2, the malcontents being Rios Rosas and Ruiz Garcia. One deputy proposed grand feasts through Spain, but this was ridiculed, seeing the awful state of the country.

At 9 p.m. Pi Margall presented the list of his cabinet, comprising Palanca, Carbajal, Cervera, Pedregal, Esteva nez, Sorni and Oreiro. Ex-President Figuera made a fine speech on unity among all classes of Republicans. A secret session was then determined on to consider the new Cabinet, but Emilio Castelar demanded that everything be public, whereupon such confusion ensued that Pi Margall resigned the reins of Government. The crowds surrounded the Cortes with music, demanding a red flag for Spain, which the deputies opposed. A second harangue by Figuera was followed by a session with closed doors.

The secret session of last night was most tumultuous, lasting till 4 in the morning. Castelar made a powerful speech, supported by his 40 friends. An alarm spread that armed men had got into the Cortes, causing awful confusion until, after a considerable time confidence was restored by Castelar & Figueras. As no solution could be arrived at, the Cortes begged Figueras to continue a little longer as President, and at last he consented. Then, at 4 o'clock this morning, the doors were opened; a vote of confidence in Figueras and his Ministers was passed, and the Finance Minister proposed to emit two thousand millions in paper-money with Curso Forzoso. This was opposed by most present, and Deputy Calzada said it would be better to offer a Grand National Loan; if not taken up voluntarily it could be made compulsory on all. The Assembly requested Figueras to name his Cabinet. The ex-Marquis Orense has resigned the chairmanship of the Cortes.

Telegrams from N. York say that Capt. Jack has been killed by his own men, the Modocs.

The prospect of being plunged into war at any moment without voice or choice is about the most disagreeable that a nation can have. But such, we are assured, is our own position at this moment. From a narrative which appears in another column, it will seem that the long-standing differences between the British and French fishermen on the coast of Newfoundland have reached an extremely critical stage. The French have fishing rights secured by treaty, upon the coasts and on the rivers of Newfoundland. Their right of occupancy, however, is limited to erecting stages on which to dry their fish along the shore from Cape Ray, the south-west point of the island, round to Cape St. John's. The British fishermen who are settled on the coast, to the number, it is said, of 10,000 or 12,000, have been in the habit of fishing wherever the French were not so employed, on the understanding that the treaty gave them the concurrent right to do so. Disputes on this point have not been unknown, but the mutual desire of the French and English naval officers on the spot to avoid 'international difficulties' usually sufficed to smooth all difficulties. Last summer, however, the Government of M. Thiers issued instructions to the French naval commander to enforce the French view of exclusive possession. No warning was given to the British fishermen, whose nets were at once seized and confiscated, although they were fishing in ground which the French fishermen had left unoccupied. This act excited the utmost indignation amongst the entire British population at the coast, and reprisals are openly threatened. The danger of a collision under such circumstances is certainly imminent, but the ground of quarrel is of such a nature that diplomacy, if it is worth anything at all, should be able easily to remove it.

The War Indemnity.—France has now something over £40,000,000 to pay within a period of little more than three months, just after having made a rather heavy payment of 20,000,000. According to a statement just made by the Minister Delbruck to the Reichstag, Germany will have received altogether, by the 5th of September, about £222,000,000, viz.: Indemnity (five milliards), £200,000,000; interest, £12,000,000; Paris contribution, &c., £10,275,000; total, £222,275,000. Deducting the value of the Alsace and Lorraine railways, reckoned in the £200,000,000, the transfer altogether will be £210,000,000 in bills and cash within barely two years and a half, and about £125,000,000 of this amount will have been transferred within the twelve months ending next September.

The valley of the Mississippi has long been noted for violent storms. A tornado of unusual severity passed, on Thursday the 22nd ult., over a portion of Iowa and Illinois. "Its path", says the despatches, "was about half a mile in width, and it tore into fragments everything in its course. Houses, barns, fences, trees, cattle, and human beings were caught up and whisked through the air like mere toys, and then dashed to the ground with such violence as to produce instant destruction. Houses and barns were torn into fragments and scattered in all directions, and for miles around the fields are dotted with large timbers driven into the ground at an angle of 90 degrees. The cattle were actually driven head-foremost into the ground. One can scarcely conceive the devastation or realise the force of the tornado."

THE SHAH OF PERSIA AT BERLIN.

Berlin, Wednesday.

The parade to-day was shorn of some of its expected proportions, in consequence of the indisposition of the Emperor, and the exceedingly warm weather. It began about 11 o'clock in the morning, and lasted little more than an hour. All the soldiers in Berlin except the the Cadet Corps took part in it, and presented, of course, a remarkably fine appearance. Prince Augustus of Wurtemburg commanded.

The Shah was accompanied to the ground by the Crown Prince, who, in the absence of the Emperor, acted as host. The two rode in an open carriage drawn by eight horses, and were accompanied by a brillant suite—Persian and Prussian. The Empress was also present with some Court ladies.

The Shah was dressed in a brilliant costume, and was as usual nearly covered with diamonds. The inspection was of the usual kind. The distinguished guest first passed along the lines which were formed to receive him, and then took up position, and the soldiers marched by. The infantry marched by battalions, the cavalry by squadrons, and the artillery by batteries. All the detachments went through their movements finely, but the artillery, which was in great force, was by far the most noteworthy display.

When the party returned the order of march was formed as follows; The Empress, with her ladies, in a carriage; the Shah and the Crown Prince; their suites; the Regiment of the Cuirassiers of the Guard and the rest of the soldiers. The procession was nearly an hour passing a given point. The Shah politely expressed his great satisfaction at the appearance of the soldiers, but there is reason to believe that he is not profoundly impressed by the military displays he has hitherto seen. I hear it said that the native sagacity of the Persian Prince has not been at all dazzled by the soldiery of Europe, and that his tastes as well as his judgment will be flattered in a higher degree by the evidences of a more peaceful and substantial prosperity.

It is no secret to state what is in deed well known here, that the Shah has come to Europe not to learn how to equip armies and make war, but how to construct railways, to dig canals, and to promote commerce. The Germans are beginning to discover the fact, and are making strenuous efforts to entice his Majesty to Hamburg. However, it may be presumed that the Emperor has no important political ends to gain with the Shah, and in the ordinary performance of the rites of hospitality finds it easiest to order out his soldiers.

MARSHAL MACMAHON, THE NEW PRESIDENT.

Paris, Monday.

I have to communicate a piece of news of capital importance, which reflects credit upon Marshal MacMahon, and augurs well for the tranquillity of France. The Ministers, aware that with the slight and unstable majority they possess in this Assembly they can never pass any measures after their own hearts, place all their hopes in a dissolution. But yesterday it was held by the majority seditious to talk of a dissolution; and now their own Government sees no other means of putting an end to inaction which must speedily become ridiculous. At a recent Ministerial Council, a draft Bill for a modification of the electoral law was brought forward as the one thing needful.

The Ministers were agreed that the "scrutin de liste" (voting a string of deputies for each department) should be abolished, just as it was by Louis Napoleon at the "coup d'etat," and that Conservative interests would be far better served by the Imperial system of returning a single member for every circumscription (called by contradistinction the "scrutin individuel). Then various opinions were pronounced as to the extent to which it would be possible to go without being accused of making a new law of May 31st in 'puritying and 'moralising' the suffrage, so as to restrict it considerably. But before any agreement was come to Marshal MacMahon cut the debate short by saying he was for the 'scrutin de liste,' and would not sanction 'any interference whatever with universal suffrage as it at present stands.'

This was a terrible blow to the Duc de Broglie, who, however, had already been made to understand that the President of the Republic is not his servant, but his master.

BATTLE OF YUQUERY.

Last Saturday, 28th June, the National forces under Colonel Luis M. Campos gained a signal victory over that portion of the rebel army near Concordia, which has been for some time threatening that town. The official report in a condensed form reads thus:

Headquarters, Yuquery,
June 29th.

To the Minister of War.

I have the honor to inform your Excellency that, after the advantage recently gained over the rebel vanguard under Querencio, I started on the 19th from Robledo at daybreak, and learned two hours later that the rebels were marching in columns, apparently to attack me, under Carmelo Ocampo. Pushing forward, I threw out skirmishers to provoke a combat, but the enemy kept retiring before me. In the pursuit I left over a thousand tired horses on the road, and camped at nightfall to give the men food and rest.

On the 20th I continued the pursuit by Arroyo Lucas, again camping at sundown. Then, finding that Ocampo's force did not exceed 2000 men, that he was trying to effect a junction with Querencio, and at the same time draw me away till my horses should be beaten up and allow of his making a sudden descent on Concordia, which had no other garrison than 160 National Guards, I resolved to fall back towards that town.

On the 21st I set out for Yuquery-Chico, where I remained for seven days in sight of the enemy, with skirmishes daily in which the enemy hoped to surprise me. Deserters informed me of Querencio's having come up and reinforced Carmelo with 700 men.

Having learned that the 4th Line had arrived to garrison Concordia I started yesterday morning for Arroyo Lucas to look up Ocampo. The enemy's vanguard fell back as I advanced keeping ½ a league ahead. But when I pushed forward the Concordia cavalry under Col. Achilles Gonsalez a stiff fight ensued with the enemy's right, which fell on said cavalry in great numbers; until I advanced the 6th of the Line and the cavalry of Concepcion and Nogoya, supported by artillery. This decided the fate of the day; the rebels fled 4 leagues, till favored by night. They left on the field 4 officers and 29 men killed, and 18 wounded at Zorraquin's estancia, taking the rest, with flag captured by sergeant Miguel Ocampo of the Federacion cavalry, who killed the enemy's ensign.

The loss in my command consists of 24 killed and 14 wounded of the Concordia, and 5 of the Villaguay, brigade. The victory over the enemy would have been more complete but that my horses were beaten up by so much marching and countermarching since the beginning of May. Thus, without ambulances for my wounded or ammunition, and having a gun disabled, besides being badly off for horses, I have fallen back towards Concordia, waiting for supplies.

LUIS M. CAMPOS

President Sarmiento in his decree of July 2nd, has raised Sergeant Ocampo to the rank of sub-Lieutenant and given him $200 for outfit.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Fourth of July!! Glorious Anniversary for the lovers of Freedom in every quarter of the world. We cordially salute the citizens of the Great Republic, resident in the River Plate, and their new representative, General Julius White, wishing their great country a long continuance of its present prestige and unexampled prosperity.

"The Violet will return to France in the Spring!" The news by the Magellan, to be found in an other column, looks extremely like it, and as it the Lily has not the ghost of a chance. Prince Napoleon is already back in Paris, and some of the French papers announce the return of the Empress Eugenie and the heir to the Imperial throne as probable. M. Rouher, the right hand and arm of the young exile's cause, is pushing to the front again, and will make himself felt soon. The whole host of Legitimists and Orleanists, with the Republicans, red and moderate, to boot, are not a match for this able Imperialist. Nevertheless, MacMahon is most generally credited with the intention of restoring the Orleanists. Time will tell. Spain is behaving so outrageously that the English, Russian and French Ministers have 'cut' her and gone home. The reaction in France has given the Carlists fresh impetus, and the Government troops have been beaten hard in Navarre, Fashionable Berlin is 'going it' hard in the amusement way, to honour the presence of the Shah, who beats even Louis the XIV in the magnifico line.

Talking about the Magellan's mails puts us in mind of the saying of an old lady who hearing somebody say that the mails were very irregular, said: 'It was just so in my young days—no trusting on 'em'.

A meeting of the Foot Ball Club is called for Monday next, so those interested will please hold themselves disengaged.

The Royal Mail steamer Boyne is expected at Montevideo on Monday. Very probably we'll have all her news in time for publication on the 9th, to help us to pass the holiday. A good number of passengers have engaged berths in this splendid steamer for the home run.

The Villa del Salto arrived in port yesterday morning from Montevideo. The heat and gross personality with which the papers there are now discussing various questions is becoming a subject of remark. Even in the Legislature and other public bodies the same acerbity is visible. Take it easy, gentlemen! 'hard words butter no parsnips!' The Free Note Emissionists are working heaven and earth to carry the day; and most of the representatives are in favour of the measure. Mr. Tuson's Port scheme is estimated to cost seven and a-half million pats., but that gentleman declares that the land to be reclaimed will more than cover that outlay. The works will require 12 years to finish.

Mr. Julius Haasse announces his acquisition of some valuable guano islands on the Patagonian coast from the Argentine government, and says, like the Little Corporal of his crown, 'gare a qui les touchent!' in an advertisement in another column.

We received a copy yesterday, with a request to exchange, of the San Francisco Catholic Guardian, a new and excellent paper devoted to religious interests in California. We feel much pleasure in complying, and wish the Guardian a long life and lots of subscribers.

An Ethiopian passenger to town by a Flores tramway car caused, yesterday morning, an unmitigated row 'en route.' His first exploit was to jump down while the car was moving and steal an orange from a poor vendor by the roadside. This was, very improperly, winked at by the guard and passengers, and he then got on the roof, and succeeded in snatching the 'castor' from a nigger engaged in the useful occupation of driving a cart. The hatless Sambo lost no time in detaching his 'ladero' horse, and went in pursuit of his 'tile' at full gallop, flourishing an enormous cart whip. On his getting alongside the fear he discharged a terrific cut at his countryman and brother; but though his intention was good his aim was bad, and the 'mayoral' paid the penalty. While the nigger on the roof yelled, laughed and flourished the stolen hat, the lacerated guard jumped down and tackled his assailant. A scrimmage ensued in which neither party was much hurt, and the affair ended by the mounted darkie riding off minus his hat. Further on a cart was found broken down right across the rails, but after a delay of half an hour the united efforts of seven horses pulled it out of the way, and the car reached the Plaza without any further mishap. Tramway travelling is certainly becoming a most delightful interlude in our day's proceedings, yet the Police seem not to feel a bit ashamed of themselves.

Let all who travel by the City of Buenos Ayres Tramway henceforward keep their 'boletos' religiously. The drawing of prizes at the end of each month may pay their expenses in trips, or more.

Pretty heavy rain came down yesterday, and in a slow and sure way that meant "more of it where that came from." The last 4th of July was a thundering wet day, and it looked yesterday as if it would be a case of ditto this year. We hope not, as a prodigious blow-out at the American Legation is expected, General White having issued invitations to the Governments, Congress, Chambers, Diplomatists and everyone in town with any pretentions to the honour. The General went down to Congress Hall on Wednesday and in a few eloquent words asked all the members to visit him on the glorious Fourth. This innovation of the U.S. Minister is characteristic of his hospitable and straightforward nation. Dr. Rawson translated his words to the Congressmen, and the invitation was accepted with tremendous cheering.

A strange occurrence took place last month in presence of an old and cherished subscriber. Whilst our friend was in Dr. Garrigos's office discussing a knotty point at law, a young man entered. He was of fair complexion, slightly tanned with the sun, evidently a farmer by trade, some 29 or 30 years of age, lightly built, in height 5.10 to six feet. His manner was dejected, and almost immediately on taking a seat he asked to be obliged with a pin. There was something strange in his manner, but the request was a simple one and unhesitatingly complied with. Baring his arm to the elbow he deliberately drove the pin into the principal vein. A simultaneous cry of horror burst from all present. He coolly withdrew it, wiped the point, and with the conventional 'muchas gracias' returned it to the owner, remarking all the while that, "It was only an experiment. He had pierced the vein of the left hand previously, but without effect"; may be this would be more successful. Last week he went stark mad, and is now an invalid at the Convalescencia, The man's name is Conroy, and no cause can be assigned for the loss of his reason, inasmuch as his legal affairs were going on well. This is one of the most melancholy cases we have ever heard of. Let us hope the matter will be fully investigated.

A London colleague announces that the Americans are so delighted with the visits paid to their shores by our scientific lecturers, such as Professor Tyndall, that the managers of the leading newspapers, in order to please the popular appetite, have engaged English writers to act as their correspondents at the Vienna Exhibition. Mr. Edmund Yates has gone as the special correspondent of the New York Herald, whilst the services of Dr. William Russell have been secured by the New York Times.

Mr. Gen. Director Burton of the Nat. Telegraph has sent Sub-Inspector Maguire to receive the Tucuman and Jujuy line. The contractors, Messrs. Roja & Co. by a strange coincidence all fell sick at Salta shortly after concluding their work. Stiff job that! No matter, well or not well, the work has got to be received. The sanitary condition of the line, not of the contractors, is the question. No man better suited for the task. We will back Mr. Maguire to tell good wire from bad any day, ay or wine either, and as for posts, there is positively no better judge in the country.

An Italian at the Boca has invented a new kind of hand grenade, at least he says it is new. The War Office has given him and his bombshell the cold shoulder.

We perceive by the London papers that two gentlemen connected with the River Plate—Messrs. Marcoartu and Sir Peter Tait—had the honour of being present at the Royal Literary Fund dinner, at which the Prime Minister presided.

There is to be the usual child's play in the Plaza on the 9th, the Provincial Government having consented to advance the necessary 'tin' to the Corporation.

Small-pox is fearfully bad at Zarate, and the Government has sent Dr. Landivar down to look after the sufferers.

Three more madmen were taken to the Policia yesterday—a Frenchman, an Italian, and a Britisher. The number of persons with 'a slate off' in Buenos Ayres is becoming quite alarming.

The last number of the Anales de Agricultura is up to the usual excellent mark of this most useful publication. The frontispiece shows some Prize Negrette sheep, and there is also a cut of a new corral for sheep, used in the States, to which we call the particular attention of estancieros. It is a vast and not expensive improvement on the present wretched system, and by sheltering the animals from the winds of the Pampa, will, if adopted here, save many sheep annually on every sheep farm. We cannot refrain from again strongly recommending all our friends in the camp to subscribe to the Anales In every number they will find hints, articles and information, which our limited space renders it impossible for us to give them, however anxious we are and always have been to do so.

"A Missouri woman, having first obtained a certificate of insanity, is now reported as being in search of her truant husband with a double-barrelled gun."

"An inscription on a woman's tombstone at Montmartre reads, 'Oh, my own dear Henri, come and rejoin me as soon as possible!' Henry hasn't gone yet."

The project of Law by the Provincial Executive offering premiums for the plantation of trees in the Province is an excellent move, and has been received by the public with high approval. The only fault we find with it is that the premiums offered are very much too low to secure the full attainment of the object the Government has in view. Trees are of vital importance to us, and should be planted, premiums or no premiums, by every man who has an acre of land. The Eucalyptus—the tree of trees— will now be in neat demand, a fine thing for Mr. Eucalyptus Pippett. In connection with this subject a leading English broker of a frutal turn of mind called our attention yesterday to the mine of wealth open to this country in the way of exporting fruits, preserves, dulces,' &c. It is one wholly and culpably neglected here, while we see California surpassing her gold mines in the wealth acquired from her orange, lemon, apple and nut farms. We import millions worth of preserved fruits, lemons, &c. yet Corrientes produces the finest lemons in the world, and our peaches, pears and various fruits grown in the Interior are unsurpassed. We know of River Plate pears being sent to England last winter as an experiment, and they were sold in Covent Garden Market at the enormous price of from 6 to 10 guineas per dozen. No finer preserves are made anywhere than in this country, yet we export none. We really only half deserve our prosperity in the Plate. It should be the business of the Sociedad Rural to take up this subject, and we call on that body to say something on it.

We hear there is to be an International Exhibition next year, or perhaps sooner, in that earthquake-shaken place San Salvador. We would n't go to that Exhibition for all the money in the Provincial Bank. The bare possibility of looking admiringly one moment at the Koh-i-noor, and the next being in process of digestion in the bowels of the earth, is anything but a refreshing contingency. No, we would n't go near Salvador if we were well paid for it; but if we can get a reporter who is tired of this life, cheap, we'll send him to the Exhibition.

Advices from Cordoba report an enormous maize crop there this year. Mr. Charles Bouquet is likely to make a fortune with his new maize mill and ten years privilege to work it.

"A shrewd old gentleman once said to his daughter. "Be sure, my dear, you never marry a poor man; but remember that the poorest man in the world is one that has money and nothing else."

Another Commissioner from Entre Rios has come down to have a conference with President Sarmiento. We hope it may lead to something.

The La Plata Club will give a grand ball on the 10th inst. to celebrate the July anniversary of the nation.

The ss. Emilia will sail for Genoa to-morrow. Letters can be posted up to the usual hour at the Port Captain's quarters.

The inhabitants of Calle Santa Fe who have the privilege of living near the powder magazine in that street have petitioned the Municipality to remove it, as their heirs presumptive are unpleasantly jocose as to the certainty of their paying a visit to the Moon some day when they least expect it. Living in that part of Calle Santa Fe is as bad as going to the San Salvador Exhibition, the only difference being that one goes towards heaven in one case and to—in the other.

H M. ship Dart, Commander D'Arcy A. Denny, R.N., is at present in this port, awaiting the arrival of the Hon. L. Sackville West, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Argentine Republic. On the arrival of Mr. West, who is expected from England by the R.M. S.P. Boyne, H.M.S. Dart will visit the rivers Uruguay and Parana, and remain some weeks at Rosario.

Three local Inspectors have lately left the Police for the Police's good, at least so says the Government, which gave them their 'conge.'

The scrimmages in Entre Rios are now becoming diurnal. We give a full account of the latest in another column. The National Guards of Entre Rios are behaving very well in the field. When are we to have a regular, stand-up, general action? None of the scuffles up to the present will shorten the war a day, nor half an hour.

Dr. Gould, Director of the Cordoba Observatory, has been elected honorary member of the Argentine Scientific Society. This distinguished gentleman is the only one on whom such an honour has been as yet conferred. Messrs Strobel and Balbin have been named Corresponding members.

The editor of the new Montevidean paper, the Hispanola Americano, to whom and to which, 'en parenthese,' we wish unlimited success, happens to rejoice in the euphonious name of Michael James Bosh. 'Absit omen'!

Maddle Siebs makes her debut at the Opera House in Calle Corrientes this evening as the Page in Verdi's Ballo in Maschera. All the Legion of admirers of her 'belle taille' will, no doubt, muster strong, to welcome her back to our operatic boards.

It is hinted that a woman in Connecticut whose speech was lately restored after twelve years silence, is making up for lost time.

We have received by the mail a pamphlet published by Sr. Garcia, Argentine Minister at Washington, in reply to Mr. McDonnell's celebrated brochure, on this country Sr. Garcia's little book is most exhaustive, is published in Paris and in English and is a complete refutation of the charges brought against the Argentine Republic, its people, and its Government.

A letter from a River Plate friend now at Vienna, and who has the entree to the best society, informs us that the Bourse crisis there has floored half the 'beau monde.' Every man in the Jockey Club is ruined, and horses, carriages and magnificent mansions are being sold by the hundred to enable their owners to pay up. Several high functionaries at Court have also been smashed, and the butcher's bill is no less than 18 suicides. Three banks and four extremely eminent bankers were expelled from the Bourse. Nice work all this! Let it be a warning to us here.

A missing man was lately advertised for and described as having a Roman nose. He won't be found; such a nose as that will never turn up.

An old man in Virginia bought himself a residence near the village burying ground. 'so as to have quiet neighbours, who'd mind their own business.'

JULY 4TH, 1873.

Hail to thee, glorious morn! my spirit thrill's,
Rapture my bosom fills
For love of thee and thine.
My country, where thy birthday—sunbeams twine
With the bright hopes that round thy children shine.
Would I were near thee now,
To see the laurels placed anew upon thy brow.

Yes, from the chrysalis of the long pain
Freedom, with broken chain
Triumphant sprung, and then,
From the world's lips there burst a glad 'amen,'
The tyrant's power was crushed, and Truth again
And Right and Justice rose
Majestic from the sorrow of their long repose.

Gone is the fend, brave England; we are one;
Thy tyranny is gone;
Repealed the hated laws
Our hearts withhold not their sincere applause,
Equal our aim, loyal and just our cause.
In peace with men to live
May this our mutual purpose evermore survive.

America, my country, hail to thee!
Strongho'd of liberty;
Thy sons are far away
From sacred homes—from loving hearts astray
Yet we cannot forget thee: night and day
Sweet memories and dear
Rise ever in our dreams, and the lone exile cheer.

Across the waves we hear the cannon boom
From town to town—the boom
Of summer-fields we see.
Thy orator's clear speech rings o'er the sea
Inspired by this anniversary:
And joy and pride are ours
And memories of thee lighten the lingering hours.

God speed thee, noble land thy Century's close
Draws nigh; thy might uprose
From suffering so be thou true
And just and wise as thou hast been, undo
Each wrong, and the wide world hail view
In thee the ages dream
A nation where the people dwell in bliss supreme.

ON 'CHANGE.

July 3, 1873.

Ounces	400
Sovs	122½
Pats	25
National Bonds	76¾
Cedulas	85¼

There was a complete reaction in the stock market to-day, Bonds and Cedulas have both improved and there really seemed to be a better feeling in the market to-day than we have noticed since the 20th of last March, when we first noticed the appearance of an impending crisis. The Provincial Bank to-day discounted about from six to seven millions, and we heard complaints at their not giving more. Some new specie notes of 50 pats were put in circulation to-day, which gave rise to the impression that the Bank, in obedience to the new law, is making a new emission. But we believe that such is not the case, and the present bills are merely issued in the regular course. Still, whatever is at work in the market, everything looked well to-day, and stocks ruled stiffer in the liquidation than during business hours.

The sales were—

National Bonds—

For cash, 1,000 at 76¾.
Do. 30th July, 20,000 at 77¼.
Do. do 20,000 at 77.
Do. do 10,000 at 76¾.

At after hours buyers for the end of the month at 77.

Cedulas—

For cash	2,000	at 85¼.
Do.	3,000	85½.
Do.	6,700	85½.
Do.	2,800	85.
Do.	5,000	85½.
Do.	25,000	85½.
Do.	1,500	85½.
Saturday,	10,000	85½.
Do.	10,000	85½.
Do.	4,400	85½.
Do.	10,000	85¾.
For 31st July,	10,000	at 85¾.
Do	10,000	85½.
Do	10,000	86.
Do	10,000	86.
For 15th July,	5,000	85¾.
Do	5,000	85½.
For 31st Dec. D.	1,000	90

The payment of the dividends, coupons, &c. has evidently had some little effect on the market, It is computed that the amount paid into the market on account of coupons and amortization is fully 800,000 pats, whilst the amount paid away by the Montevidean Government for the same purposes is put down at one million pats. These figures we have gathered from a well informed source, and may be relied on.

Exchange rules at 49⅝-49¾ drawers; very little done owing to the scarcity of money. A large Government transaction is spoken of, the bills drawn by a private bank at 48½ payable in treasury 60 day notes. Owing to the large sales made in wool it is thought probable that the rate will advance.

A judicial sale of a piece of land on the Flores road, opposite the Capanegra property, is reported. The place was knocked down for the price of 90 m/c per vara cuadrada. This shows how property along that fine thoroughfare holds its own even in spite of the crisis.

At the South market this morning one lot of mestiza wool sold at 65 m/c, and 500 salted horse hides sold by Peyredieu and Bradley for 21 r s.

It was very freely rumoured on 'Change this afternoon that all the wool in this market have been sold. We are authorized to say that such is not the case. Some of the principal holders have not as yet sold one pound.

At an advanced hour in the liquidation 9800 Cedulas were sold for to-morrow at 85¾. Afterwards 4,800 at the same price; the market closed very hard at 86¼: buyers for end of month.

The Provincial Government has sent home full powers to Mr. Maguire to make the new city improvement loan, for 2 millions sterling, the papers have all gone forward in the Ebro.

Discount brokers still report money dear and difficult, it is all nonsense they say to talk of money being easier, so long as the very best almaceneros paper in the market can be had at 18 per cent. per annum. To ease the market the Bank must give out at least one million patacones, and this seems unlikely since the Directors but to well know that with things in Europe as they are at present, the very first effect of cheaper money is to bring takers of exchange into the market drive down the rate and possibly wind up with shipping gold.

The Portena in her last trip down to Montevideo took down the following specie—

To the Maua Bank £15,000 stg.
To London and R. P. Bank 6,250.

The Magellan brought out 188 passengers to Buenos Ayres; some of whom were Irish emigrants and were landed this morning and at once cared for by the agent of the St. Patrick's Society.

The fine American barque A. C. Bean, cleared to-day for New York by Mr Bean and Co, took the following cargo—

16,186 dry hides
310 bales wool
25 do nutria
63 do hair
68 do goatskins
7 do hide cuttings
7 cases feathers
27 do merchandise
52,080 horns.

Messrs. MacLean and Co., Custom House brokers, of 4 Reconquista, have been appointed agents for the Morris European Express Company, established in New York in 1855.

By the last Pacific steamer from Europe Mr. G. Beresford, who is connected with the civil engineering profession, arrived at Montevideo. He holds a commission under His Excellency Don Arturo do Marcoartu, and proposes to acquaint himself with any new project that may present itself to his notice in the River Plate being of a practicable nature.

Mr. Beresford was prior to this date employed in the survey of the Salto Railway, an enterprize begun by, and which is now being carried out owing to the energy of Sr. de Marcoartu.

Another enterprize for which we have to thank the same manager viz: the submarine cable from the River Plate to Brazil has also realized a happy termination.

When the Magellan left Europe the cable was being stowed in the tanks of the telegraph steamer Mazzeppa, which was timed to leave between the 10th and 13th of June for Montevideo. Mr. Beresford is authorized to state that there is every hope that in the month of August we shall receive telegrams from Europe as soon as the steamers arrive at Rio Janeiro. Montevideo, Buenos Ayres, and Valparaiso will then be at the same distance from Europe as Rio de Janeiro is now—thanks to Marcoartu's cable—which is to be the first section of the submarine line destined to connect us within the current year with Europe.

The happy results which have crowned the energetic efforts of Sr. de Marcoartu in the two great and difficult enterprises with which his name is linked in the Plate encourage him to hope that the same flattering results will accompany his new projects.

So soon as Sr. Marcoartu arrived in this country, in 1868, the Buenos Ayres STANDARD said—"We salute him as one of our compatriots, able to contribute much to the progress of the River Plate, because he is esteemed a compatriot in the political, literary and scientific circles of G. Britain."

Mutual Gas Company.—The Biela brought out eight workmen for the contractor of these works. They are intended for laying the mains, which will commence as soon as arrangements are concluded with the Public Works Committee. The steamer Lubitz has the gas-holder tank on board, and 600 tons of pipes. We hear the buildings are progressing satisfactorily, all the retort feed foundations being in, the coal store completed, and the front offices so far advanced that they will be perfectly complete within a month.

The Magellan's mails were delivered early and the general tone of the letters respecting wool is said to be most favorable. The Times of the 5th June has the following—

"Wednesday evening.

"The Bank rate has been raised to 7 per cent. At the commencement of business this morning there were symptoms of an increase rather than a relaxation in the discount demand, notwithstanding the large supplies granted yesterday, and the Governors promptly resolved to adapt their terms to this condition of affairs. Subsequently, the applications were of a full but not excessive character, and the various departments of business were without disturbance. The attempts to draw money hence for the relief of the Continental markets constitute almost the sole cause of the existing pressure, which is therefore free from any alarming features. To traders on fair credit the prevalence for a few weeks of a heavy and exceptional rate can never be a subject of anxiety, any charge occasioned by it must be more than compensated by the shock it is calculated to occasion to unsound competitors. Consols opened without alteration, but soon experienced a decline of ¼, closing without recovery at 92 to ⅜ ex div. for delivery, and 92½ to ⅝ for the 2d of July.

Railway stocks opened without alteration, but on the announcement of the Bank Rate being raised prices generally declined.

The market for foreign securities opened heavily this morning on the continued scarcity of money, and when the announcement of the rise of the Bank rate was made a sharp decline ensued."

The latest from Antwerp per Magellan is to 4th June, and is as follows:—

River Plate produce, excepting wool and sheepskins which are in good demand, rules in general very quiet. The money market ruled easier, but the new advance in discount rates in London will no doubt cause a proportionate rise here.

Hides—

Stock, 1st inst., transit deducted, 83,300 hides against 73,100 same time last year, 81,200 in 1871, and 83,300 in 1870.

Imports of first five months, 401,100 hides against 377,500 same time last year, 279,500 in 1871 and 255,000 in 1870.

Arrivals since last mail 47,000. Imports of month to date, 1,200.

Stock, less transit and sales on delivery, but including arrivals to date, 82,500 hides, viz., 21,700 dry and 40,700 salted River Plate, — dry and — salted Rio Grande, and 20,100 miscellaneous and horsehides.

An increasing dulness and weakness affect our market for all descriptions. Buyers for spot and on delivery have entirely withdrawn, and the cargoes, which now begin to arrive in numbers, have generally all to be stored here, which might soon form a larger stock than known for a long time. Tanners are not largely supplied, but before a couple of months are not expected to show much disposition to buy.

Following decline was established in May—

2 fr on B.A. sal doro ox.
3, 4, 5 fr on Uruguay do.
2 fr dry matadero cows.
5 fr do do ox.
5 fr do camp ox and cows.

The United States continue to send to Europe domestic hides, which are quite unsuitable and weigh heavily on markets in general.

The stock here on 31st May of R. Plate was composed of—

3,800 dry matadero ox.
5,300 do do cows,
12,900 dry camp ox and cows.
34,000 saladero ox.
2,500 do cows.
1,400 salted matadero ox.
2,700 do cows.
Tallow—

Imports from the River Plate for the first five months equal, 12,600 pipes of beef and mutton tallow, against 12,090 in 1872, and stocks at end of May 6,300 pipes, against 4,900 pipes in first, and about 4000/2 pipes in second hands in 1872 Prices this time last year were fl 25½ for mutton and fl 26 for beef.

The market has ruled very quiet again, and some small lots of mutton have occasionally been bought ½ fl cheaper.

R. P. Wool—

Sales by private contract since 21st ult., 2,400 bales R. P. and a few bales washed.

Arrivals since last mail, 8,900 bales R. P. and 400 miscellaneous. Stock, 16,000 b R. P. besides 1,400 miscellaneous.

Since the close of the auction an active demand prevailed, almost exclusively for France, at full prices, showing especially for Montevideo and Banda Oriental suitable for combing purposes, a recovery of 5 over on to 10c.

The Government change in France has led to this sudden and unexpected movement. The northern departments, being great conservatives, and believing that the new President will firmly keep order in their country, have sent here large orders. Unfortunately, they are almost all speculative and not based on consumption, so that the demand is likely to be but temporary, and a reaction might occur under pressure of arrivals and persistent dulness in Germany, at Verviers, etc.

At the Liverpool auction only half of River Plate wools offered was sold, at about last March prices, which are lower than ours.

The San Nicolas wools bought at last sales have yielded more after scouring than anticipated; have been rather inquired for, and prices for greasy have improved proportionately—5 to 10c.

Sheepskins—

Stock, 960 bales. Sales, 274 bales.

The demand is steady at last quotations, which are firmly maintained, and occasionally somewhat higher for good full woolled skins.

Stillborn lambs are almost unsaleable.

Present value of entire invoices of really good middling full woolled Buenos Ayrean skins, averaging a 1st, is about f.1.55; whereas for Montevideo giving a 2nd on average, it is 1.70—79.

Imports of May amount to 788 b against 230 b, and stock at end of month to 957 b against 438 b against same time in 1872.

Just in from R. Plate, steamer Copernicus c. Hudson, do. Tibor c. Gillies.

Below, Brazile, c. Blezzich, from B. Ayres with 9808 salted hides.

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Calle Cangallo--103

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very lge amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the example of their firm in Montevideo, the same facilities, in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUÁ & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM

BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Can only be obtained by the use of Rowland's Macassar Oil. It prevents the Hair falling off or turning grey, strengthens weak hair, causes it to grow on bald places, and makes it beautifully soft, pliable, and glossy. Price 3s. 6d., 7s., 10s. 6d. equal to four small, and 21s. per bottle.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

Ask for Rowland's Macassar Oil, and avoid all other cheap articles under the same or similar names as spurious imitations. Each Bottle has a "Glass Stopper" in place of the Cork, as formerly. All with the 'Cork' are spurious imitations. This notice is deemed necessary, as the Proprietors have received intimation that a large quantity of Counterfeit, of the most pernicious quality, has lately been sent from France and Germany to India, South America, and the Colonies, under their names.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION

Is obtained by the use of Rowland's Kalydor, which allays all irritation and tenderness of the skin, removes cutaneous disfigurements, freckles, and tan, and imparts a healthy and bloaming appearance to the complexion and skin. During the heat and dust of Summer especially, and in cases of Sunburn and Stings of Insects, it is of the utmost use. Price 4s 6d. and 8s. 6d. per bottle. Ask for "Rowland's Kalydor," and see that their signature is in red ink on every bottle, as theirs is the only genuine.

WHITE AND SOUND TEETH

Are indispensable to personal attraction, and healthy longevity, by the proper mastication of food. Rowland's Odonto Pearl Dentifrice preserves and imparts a pearl-like whiteness to the teeth, eradicates tartar and spots o incipient decay, strengthens the gums, and gives a pleasing fragrance to the breath. Price 2s. 9d. per box. Ask for "Rowland's Odonto," and see that their name is on the Government Stamp of every box.

ROWLAND'S ESSENCE OF TYRE

Never fails to produce imediately a perfect change in Red or Grey Hair, Whiskers, Eyebrows, &c., to a beautiful glossy and purmanent Brown or Black, which colour remains so durable that neither washing or perspiration can remove it. Price 4s., 7s. 6d, and 10s. 6d per bottle.

All these articles have been used and justly appreciated by all the Sovereigns and Courts of Europe, the Pope of Rome, and the aristocracy of Europe during the last seventy years, being of inestimable value to those who have once used them. They are sold by all Chemists, Perfumers, and Bazaars, throughout India, the Colonies, and South American.

THE BEST THING TO DO IN THE CRISIS.

What is the best way to invest a few hundred dollars every month during the Crisis?

In a building plot of land, well situated: for that can't smash, Crisis or no Crisis.

Where is the place best situated with a view to the future?

Undoubtedly at the Boca; just close to the rai way station, or between the railway and Calle Defen a.

Why do you direct me there?

Because that place is going ahead so fast that in a very short time what little land there is between the Boca and the city will be all built on, and because I have orders to sell for building plots a few chosen squares between the rai way and Calle Defensa and between the city and the Boca.

How do you sell them, and on what terms?

I can sell 10 or 20 yards fronting on such principal streets as Defensa, Balcarce, Olivaria, etc., by various depths up to 50 yards, at a price as low as $12,000, payable without interest in fifteen monthly instalments of only $800 each; and before the last instalment is paid the land will very probably be double, perhaps treble, its present value.

If you want to know more, and to get maps, plans etc., call at my office in Calle

Bristol's sarsaparilla

Is prepared in the most scientific manner, by thoroughly educated chemists and Druggists, who have had many years' experience. It is not a simple extract from one article, but is compounded of extracts from a number of Roots, Herbs Barks, and Leaves, all of which are possessed of some particular virtue or power in curing the diseases that have their source in the blood and humors; those different vegetable extracts are combined in such a way as to retain, in so full strength, the special curative virtue possessed by each. The root of the Sarsaparilla plants found in Honduras, is that which we use in this preparation; it is the kind which all medical men esteem most. About fifty per cent. of Bristol's Sarsaparilla consists of the concentrated extract, the remainder, as above stated being composed of extracts from other powerful, cleansing and healing vehetable substances. It does not contain any thing that is dagerous or injurious to health, and in this, as in nearly every other respect, is entirely different from all other preparations sold under the name of Sarsaparilla.

By having our own agents at the places where the various roots, drugs, herbs and plants, composing our medicines, are produced, we are enabled to exercise that constant care in selection which insures uniformity of excellence, and we spare no money and no effort to procure the best—and only the best—of every article entering into their composition; and it is with the most abiding confidence we say, to be sick of all nations and all countries, that, in Bristol's Sarsaparilla you have a remedy more reliable than any before offered to you, and which will no disappoint you in the cure of
